

SOCIETY & CULTURE

agenda

JULY/AUGUST

By Katie Butler

The fireworks show, renowned nationwide, has been lighting up the sky for three decades.

THROUGH 7/16
México 1900-1950
 Explore 50 years of Mexican modern art including pieces from renowned artists such as Diego Rivera, Frida Kahlo and José Clemente Orozco. With almost 200 works, including sculptures and photography, this exhibition highlights the history of Mexico, cultural development, and, of course, art. Tickets $16, Dallas Museum of Art, dma.org

7/2
Outlaw Music Festival Tour
 Even though Dallas is in the heart of Texas, city life can make us forget the musical soul of our state. Get your country music fix with the Outlaw Music Festival Tour, featuring some of the good ol' country greats such as Willie Nelson, The Avett Brothers, Sheryl Crow and more. Don't forget to dig up your cowboy boots! 3PM, VIP tickets from $200,

Starplex Pavilion, dallaspavilion.org

7/13-14
Chocolate and Art Show Dallas
 Need even more reason to eat chocolate? Look no further. At the Chocolate and Art Show Dallas, take a bite out of the Dallas Arts District and its new and up-and-coming artists. Paired with other forms of fun such as live music, face-painting and free chocolate, this night is sure to be sweet. (21+) 8PM-2AM, $15, Lofty Spaces, chocolateandartshow.com

7/29
Justin Bieber
 If you're a Belieber, this is a show you won't want to miss. The winner of the American Music Award for artist of the year in both 2010 and 2012, as well as a Grammy comes to Dallas this summer on his Purpose Tour. Bieber is hitting only six locations in the U.S. on this tour, so get your tickets quick; you don't want to be "Sorry"! 7:30PM, VIP tickets $500, AT&T Stadium, justinbiebermusic.com

WILLIAM T. WILEY: WHERE THE RUBBER MEETS THE RODE

Enjoy art from one of the founding members of the West Coast funk movement with a career spanning more than 50 years. In his solo exhibition at the Bivins Gallery, William T. Wiley gives patrons a taste of his thought-provoking, witty art. Bivins Gallery, bivinsgallery.com

Wiley's work explores topics ranging from pop culture to global warming.

through July 8th