BIVINS GALLERY—Bivins Gallery showcases modern and post-war contemporary art and represents historically relevant established artists, cutting-edge emerging talent, key secondary market works, and the estates of important legacy artists. Located in Uptown's iconic Crescent Court, the gallery offers offers complimentary valet parking for patrons and guests. www.bivinsgallery.com. 300 Crescent Court, Suite 100, 214.272.2795.

CHRISTOPHER MARTIN GALLERY—A self-taught artist, Christopher Martin is known for his reverse glass painting technique. With a distinctive style that artistically merges photography, painting and digital media, Martin's signature acrylic-on-acrylic and acrylic-on-canvas works have a common metallic element. www.christopherhmartin.com. 2412 Victory Park Lane, 214.880.1770.

COLLAGE 20TH CENTURY CLASSICS—Famed for being one of the most respected and established galleries for Modern furniture in the country, Collage 20th Century Classics has been buying and selling architect-designed and designer furniture, lighting and decorative art since 1986. Pick up a special treasure: Mid-Century Modern ceramic sculpture. www.collageclassics.com. 1300 N. Riverfront Blvd., 214.828.9888.

CONDUIT GALLERY—For the past 18 years, Conduit Gallery has been dedicated to the visual arts in North Texas, representing a range of established and emerging artists like Ellen Berman, Steven Miller, Roberto Munguia, Michael Roch, Reinhard Ziegler and Susie Phillips. www.conduitgallery.com. 1626 Hi Line Drive, Suite C, 214.939.0064.

CRAIGHEAD-GREEN GALLERY—This gallery represents the work of local, national and international artists, focusing on contemporary paintings and sculptures in a myriad of media and styles. Consistently named one of the best galleries in Dallas, Craighead-Green is a member of the Dallas Art Dealers Association. www.craigheadgreen.com. 1011 Dragon St., 214.855.0779.

GALLERY 414—Gallery 414 has been promoting contemporary art in a wide range of medium since 1995. It shows a mixture of different kinds of artists with different kinds of sensibilities, all to bring a new perspective to the viewer. www.gallery414.org. 414 Templeton Drive, Fort Worth, 817.336.6595.

GALLERIE NOIR—Get inspired at Gallerie Noir in the Dallas Design District, where a sleek, modern aesthetic meets bold colors, textures and paintings. The boutique gallery's inventory of handcrafted gifts and statement pieces, many of which are sourced from local artists, means that whatever you take home will be truly unique. gallerienoir.com. 1525 Dragon St., 214.760.9536.

HOLLY JOHNSON GALLERY—The gallery was founded in 2005 and represents about 30 different artists from around the nation. It's also a founding member of the Contemporary Art Dealers of Dallas and the good people at Holly Johnson give great advice and recommendations for private and corporate collectors. www.hollyjohnsongallery.com. 1411 Dragon St., 214.369.0169.

JANETTE KENNEDY GALLERY—The South Side on Lamar is known for trendy and urban-style living. Amid its eclectic walls, you'll stumble upon a sacred treasure: the Janette Kennedy Gallery. With a new exhibit every two weeks, the gallery displays ceramics, video, woodcuts, paintings, drawings, music, graphic arts and found objects by local and international artists. www.southsideliving.info. 1409 S. Lamar St., 214.426.1575.

MARTIN LAWRENCE—Martin Lawrence Galleries is internationally renowned as a premier dealer in original paintings, sculpture and limited-edition graphics by Picasso, Chagall, Warhol and other famous and soon-to-be famous artists. From a new exhibition gallery on the first level of Galleria Dallas, it provides access to "blue-chip" fine art not found anywhere else in Texas. www.martinlawrence.com. 13550 Dallas Parkway, First Level, Galleria Dallas, 972.546.2988.

MILAN GALLERY—This diverse gallery in Sundance Square houses works from local, national and international artists. Milan also plays host to special events, exhibitions and artist receptions. www.milangallery.com. 505 Houston St., Fort Worth, 817.338.4278.

REBECCA LOW SCULPTURAL METAL GALLERY & STUDIO—One man's trash is another's treasure, especially for artist Rebecca Low, whose metal art and sculpture gallery features unique pieces from various scraps, metals and materials like paint and glass. Stop by to get inspired, see what's new or take home something that's truly one-of-a-kind. www.rebeccalow.com. 7608 Camp Bowie W Blvd., Fort Worth, 817.244.1151.

ROUGHTON GALLERIES INC.—Housed in a building created by Foushee and Cheek in 1931, Roughton Galleries' collection consists of 19th- and early-20th-century American and European works by artists from the Hudson River school, American Luminist, Traditional Realism and more. www.roughtongalleries.com. 3702 Fairmount St., 214.871.1096.

SAMUEL LYNNE GALLERIES—Contemporary artists J.D. Miller and Philip Romano head up this modern art and sculpture gallery. The 11,100-square-foot industrial space is also home to a 30-seat, HD theater and a wine/espresso bar. www.samuellynne.com. 1105 Dragon St., 214.965.9027.

SOUTHWEST GALLERY—This expansive gallery presents a diverse collection of original paintings, graphics, sculptures and more, as well as an outstanding selection of American and European oils in a variety of styles, including contemporary, traditional, impressionist, Western and Southwestern. The gallery is also home to Kittrell Riffkind Art Glass Gallery and The Artists' Showplace Gallery. www.swgallery.com. 4500 Sigma Road, 972.960.8935 or 800.272.9910.

STOCKYARDS STATION GALLERY—The collection of gorgeous fine art—original bronzes, paintings, home furnishings, rope art, iron carvings and more—will keep visitors perusing for hours. www.stockyardsgallery.com. 140 E. Exchange Ave., Suite 113, 817.624.7300.

THOMAS KINKADE GALLERY—As one of America's most collected artists, Thomas Kinkade is a legend. Thomas Kinkade Gallery carries his light-infused paintings as part of one of the most extensive collections in the world. www.thomaskinkade.com. 302 Main St., Fort Worth, 817.335.1140.

VETRO GLASSBLOWING STUDIO & GALLERY—Vetro Glass Blowing Studio & Gallery offers visitors the opportunity to take home something completely unique. A one-of-a-kind, gorgeous piece of blown glass makes the perfect gift for loved ones back home. While you're there, check out the live glass-blowing demonstrations; you'll be amazed at the beauty of this colorful art. www.vetroartglass.com. 701 S. Main St., Suite 103, Grapevine, 817.251.1668.

SPOTLIGHT

COURTESY BIVINS GALLERY

'Richard Hickam: Expressions of Color'

Master colorist Richard Hickam's vibrant array of artwork—including his works of photorealism, large-scale abstracts and figurative abstractions—will be on display at Bivins Gallery in the Uptown Dallas Crescent complex from Sept. 16-Oct. 21. The show, entitled Richard Hickam: Expressions of Color, will be center stage at the main gallery. Stop by for the opening-night reception, when Hickam himself will be in attendance. www.bivinsgallery.com. 300 Crescent Court, Suite 100, 214.272.2795.